I've been making books for children for over 50 years, and can honestly say that I've enjoyed every day of it. Children have grown up with Usborne books and are now sharing them with their own families. I want Usborne books to encourage play, to make knowledge irresistible, to expand horizons and to spark curiosity. I am now almost 83, but I still look forward every morning to coming to work (even if it's at home during recent months) to create books to educate and entertain children everywhere.

We were thrilled to have been named Children's Publisher of the Year by our industry – for the second time – particularly in the light of the strength of the competitors in our field. I do believe that we are working in a golden age of children's publishing, and we were honoured to be recognised. I must dedicate the award to my wonderful staff, who stay and stay with us at Usborne.

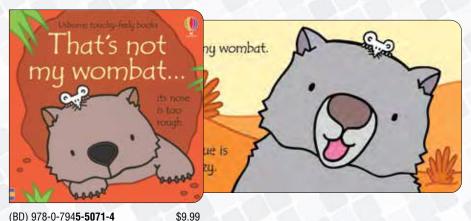

I hope you will find plenty in this Usborne section of your catalogue to inspire and delight you, and that the year ahead will be better than the last.

Flip Catalog Over For Usborne Titles

Hello,

We are experiencing the most unusual time in my history serving as CEO of EDC Publishing since 1986. This shutdown of our economy is unprecedented, and the impact has been great on both small and larger businesses alike. I have had the privilege of being witness to both working tirelessly for their customers to pivot their business model to accommodate the ever-changing economic scenery.

EDC Publishing has seen continued business from our core base of customers: bookstores, toy stores, and retail chain stores. Our philosophy at EDC Publishing has always been to cater to, and support our base, the loyal independents, many of whom have been our Preferred Dealers for many years. We have not wavered from that philosophy and are here to support and help in any way feasible to enable you to find success in this maze of disruption.

While I certainly do not have the ability to predict what will occur in the coming months, I know two things.

- 1. We will continue to produce and distribute award-winning, quality educational, and activity materials for children of all ages.
- 2. We will continue to be your partner, supporting your efforts to restore and maintain your business.

As I stated earlier, in my almost forty-five years as CEO, I have seen a lot. That includes almost 100 new titles releases. It never ceases to amaze me that the books presented in our frontlist continue to get better. You are sure to find something for every one of your customers, and we are proud to offer the best combinations of frontlist and backlist titles in the industry!

We value and appreciate your historical support of our product lines, Usborne Books and Kane Miller Books. We are here for you in whatever way we can be. When the going gets tough, the tough get going. Please let us know how we can be a strategic partner in these extraordinary times.

All of us at Kane Miller are entering this new year with hope, and with a renewed commitment to publishing books that enrich the lives and imaginations of all children — books that nurture empathy and gratitude, respect and kindness.

We celebrate the joy and wonder to be had in quiet moments in Extraordinary!. With its lyrical text and gorgeous artwork, it beautifully captures ordinary (but extraordinary) experiences. It's exactly these kinds of simple day-to-day pleasures that readers will delight in sharing with Millie-Mae in Millie-Mae Loves to Play and Millie-Mae Through the Seasons.

We celebrate too the wondrous joys of family life, in the welcoming of a new baby in Soon and in Say Hello to Baby, in a mother's love, comfort, and protection in The Sound of My Heart, and in the animal world, in

All Kinds of Animal Families

Empathy and kindness are central themes in Yoga Animals at the Seashore, while the spirit of cooperation and rejoicing in differences make for The Perfect Fit. Hooray, it's Garbage Day! and the Family Heroes series celebrate those in our communities dedicated to helpfulness and service.

Children who are passionate about the outdoors, space, or the arts may be thrilled to learn of the many career choices that exist in these areas; and others may find their interest sparked by the new additions to the That's a Job? series. Readers of all ages will relish the stories behind the words in 365 Words Everyone Should Know; My Year of Writing's 365 prompts will stimulate creativity as well as building writing skills.

Laughter as a shared experience and an invitation to learning has always been an essential part of the Kane Mille mission, and that continues with picture books like Never Show a T. rex a Book, The Tale of the Valiant Ninja Frog and The Wrong Fairy Tale series.

Find more information about these and our many other new books — including three new fiction series and new Billie B. Brown/Hey Jack! titles as well as Santa Post, a holiday treat from Emma Yarlett, in the Edelweiss catalog and on our website.
